

OUT-OF-SEASON COACHING

1. Coaches may observe competition.
2. A coach's high school candidates must constitute the minority of those:
 - taking part in any sport's program;
 - competing on any team at any moment.
3. In sports individual in nature or involving a series of scoring events: candidates of that high school coach must be fewer than 50% of all those participating.
4. Coaches who give private lessons may provide that service provided:
 - private lessons are open to all;
 - candidates represent fewer than 50%;
 - candidates – no special consideration
5. During the academic year, no member of your coaching staff may be involved with out-of-season teams of any sport (except as permitted above)
6. During the summer only, members of your coaching staff may work with student-athletes of any sport, other than their own (and as permitted above)
